

THE BALLAD OF SONGBIRDS AND SNAKES

COUNTDOWN PARTY KIT

REAPING BINGO

INSTRUCTIONS:

Each virtual party guest prints their own blank bingo sheet and fills it out with provided Hunger Games glossary terms. The virtual party host cuts out the glossary cards below, puts them in a container, draws them out one at a time, and either reads out the term or its definition. The first person to get five in a row (across, down, or diagonally) wins!

Airtime Assault: When District 13 hacks the Capitol's systems to play their propos over any Capitol announcements	Gamemakers: The people who design and execute the environment and challenges in the Hunger Games	Nightlock: Poisonous berries, as seen in the 74th Hunger Games	Reaping: The process and ceremony by which the tributes are chosen
Avox: A person convicted of treason who has their tongue removed and is forced into servitude for the Capitol	Hijacked: The process by which Tracker Jacker venom is used to manipulate a person's memories and create fear	Opening Ceremony: A parade through the Capitol where citizens can see the tributes for the first time	Remake Center: The building where the tributes are beautified for interviews and events
Bunker Protocol: The safety procedure of citizens in District 13 during airstrikes where they take shelter in the lower levels of the building	Tributes: The male and female competitors from each district that take part in the Hunger Games	Panem: The country that arose in what was once North America after natural disasters and war	Special Defense: The sector of District 13's military focusing on new technology and developing advanced weapons
Career Tributes (Careers): Children who train from an early age to master fighting skills and who volunteer to compete in the Hunger Games. Usually are from Districts 1, 2, and 4.	Holo: A handheld holograph used by District 13 to map the Capitol	Peacekeeper: Law enforcement from the Capitol that maintains order in the Districts	Sponsors: Citizens of Panem who send gifts to competing tributes during the Games
Communicuff: Communication device used by the military in District 13	Jabberjay: Genetically modified birds that could mimic human speech and that were created by the Capitol to use in surveillance	Pods: Defense traps hidden throughout the Capitol designed to kill invaders	Tesserae: Putting one's name in another time for the Reaping in exchange for grain and oil
Cornucopia: The center of the arena where the weapons and supplies are placed	Justice Building: The government building where the Reaping takes place	Propos: Anti-Capitol propoganda videos created by District 13	The Arena: The annually designed venue for the Hunger Games; controlled off-site by Gamemakers, who modify the climate and other conditions
District Escort: The Capitol employee in charge of preparing the tributes prior to the start of the Hunger Games	Mockingjay: Unintended crossbreeds of jabberjays and mockingbirds, considered a symbol of Capitol failure	Quarter Quell: A glorified version of Hunger Games that occurs every 25 years; marked by a significant deviance from the normal rules	The Capitol: The wealthiest District of Panem where the governing body resides
Districts: The 12 regions of Panem, each specializing in a different commodity	Mutations (Mutts): Creatures genetically modified by the Capitol for war and for a challenge in the Hunger Games	The Dark Days: The uprising of the Districts against the Capitol	The Hob: The black market in District 12 that operates in an abandoned coal warehouse
The Hunger Games: A battle to the death where each district of Panem offers two tributes as penance for an old rebellion	The Seam: The area of District 12 that borders the forest	Tracker Jacker: Genetically modified wasps with highly poisonous stings that can result in delirium, hallucinations, and death	Training Center: The building where the tributes are given the chance to train in basic survival skills
